

Matt Sanders, MHR

(He/Him/His)

Coordinator of Student Conduct Services and Support

Matt Sanders was born and raised in Oklahoma and has approximately ten years' experience in higher education at OU. He has a Bachelor of Arts in History from East Central University in Ada, Oklahoma and a Master of Human Relations from OU. He is licensed to teach in Oklahoma and has taught Middle School and High School history and geography. He also has a CELTA (Certificate in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages) from Cambridge University.

Matt previously lived abroad in East and Southeast Asia for approximately five years. Traveling the world furthered his appreciation for diversity and was invaluable in shaping his worldview. After completing graduate school, Matt began working as an Admissions Counselor in the Graduate College, where he specialized in international credential evaluation.

Prior to joining the Office of Student Conduct, Matt served as an Administrative Coordinator in the Office of Export Control on the Research Campus. He is excited to be back on main campus and use his experience and education to serve the University and its students.

In his free time Matt enjoys spending time with family, camping and hiking, music and podcasts, as well as participating in and watching sports of all kinds.
