December 31, 2021

I. Campus Expression Policies

The Board of Regents of the University of Oklahoma is committed to providing an environment conducive to the free, spirited, and safe exchange of ideas.

For the University of Oklahoma: The applicable policies for the use of facilities for expressive activity on campus can be found in their entirety at:

<https://www.ou.edu/studentaffairs/student-resources/cert>

II. Professional Development for Students and Employees

The Board's constituent institutions communicate policy and expectations to students and employees through educational programming provided to the applicable faculty, staff, and students, as well as circulation of informational materials and publication of policies in student handbooks on their websites. New policies and/or updates to existing policies may also be communicated throughout the year via electronic communication. In addition, the University celebrated Free Speech week in 2021.

III. Barriers or Disruptions of Free Expression

None of the Board's constituent institutions experienced any barriers or disruptions of free speech during the calendar year ending December 31, 2021.
